

Prof. Sanjay Medhavi is a distinguished academic leader and higher education administrator based in Lucknow, India, with over 30 years of experience in academic administration and institutional development. He also currently serves as the Pradesh Adhyaksh of the Rashtriya Shaikshik Mahasangh Uttar Pradesh.

Throughout his career at the University of Lucknow, Prof. Medhavi has held several high-impact statutory roles:

- As the Registrar of the University of Lucknow, he oversaw university governance for 500 faculty members, 1,200 staff, and over 500 affiliated colleges.
- While serving as Head of the Department of Business Administration (LUMBA), he is credited with transforming it into a premier business school through strengthened industry-academia linkages and curriculum reforms.
- As Director, Central Placement Cell, he led recruitment drives and strengthened corporate relations to improve student outcomes.
- As a Policy Architect, he contributed to state-level education policy, including drafting the UP Private Universities Act and the Higher Education Council Act.

Prof. Medhavi's academic contributions are extensive, characterised by a deep commitment to research and mentorship:

- As a mentor, he has successfully supervised more than 30 PhDs and 1 D.Litt. across fields ranging from the use of Technology in Business to Strategic Management.
- He has authored more than 50 research papers and 3 books, including a specialised Dictionary of Management and Business Administration.
- He has also demonstrated Thought Leadership by delivering more than 75 invited lectures at prestigious institutions nationwide.

He holds an MBA from Devi Ahilya University, Indore, and an MCom from the University of Lucknow. He is also a life member of several professional bodies, including the All India Management Association (AIMA), the Strategic Management Forum of India, and the Indian Commerce Association.